

Greenstage Free Festival 9th-11th August 2013

Friday	9th August
7.00	David the Fiddle	'fiddle and guitar fireworks to set the festival alight'
7.20	Trish Brown	'gutsy covers with superb vocal range and interpretation from this young artist'
7.40	Jess Newberry Le Vay	'fine guitar playing and pitch-perfect vocals, well chosen covers and heartfelt re-working''
8.00	Young Hounds	'guitar driven indie rock – highly recommended by the ditch gypsies'
8.30	Dave Neale	'fabulous performer with great songs that range from haunting ballads to lively folk pop...recently described by R2 magazine as a singer-songwriter of considerable promise'
9.10	Tape Runs Out	'arthouse originality, strong writing, fine ensemble playing'
10.00	Alchemy	'tasteful covers, raunchy vocals and fine guitar work'
10.30	Tom Canning	'songwriting at its bed-sit, torch-song best'
Saturday	10th August
12.00	Red Velvet	'politics, love and death but with great tunes and superb harmonies'
12.50	Santillys	'smooth jazz from Bert 'the fingers' and Helen 'the voice' Santilly'
1.20	Philip Rundall	'original songwriting and creative covers'
1.40	Dave Jenkins	'exquisite story songs from the Bard of Horningsea'
2.00	Out of the Attic	'accordion virtuoso meets flute fanatic – classical to klezmer!'
2.20	Dave Wilson	'chilled, melodic acoustic covers from the Wilson songbook'
2.40	Djangophonix	'hot club swing and jazz – one man down but still shifting those gears'
3.00	Brian Crockett	'unique take on old favourites and richly complex songwriting'
3.20	Banjo Nick	'Woody Guthrie reborn as Poet-Banjo balladeer'
3.40	Les Miserables	'excerpts from the forthcoming major 5-man production - you heard it here first'
4.00	Andrew Orr	'heartbreaking melodies and gentle guitar work'
4.20	Jacob's Irregulars	'wide ranging repertoire from the fiddling duo'
4.40	Blaise Mann	'psychedelic beat poet born 40 years too late – catch the second coming!'
5.10	Paul Vaes	'fine best selection of singer-songwriter gems to chill-out to'
5.30	On the Edge	'fine whistle, flute and bodhran playing from our favourite tradies'
5.50	Broken Diamonds	'songs from all over eastern Europe plus Sasha's exhibition dancing!'
6.20	Trish Brown	'gutsy covers with superb vocal range and interpretation from this young artist'
6.40	The Simpsons	'singalong specials delivered with good humour, impeccable taste and a cheese slice'
7.00	Romy Gensale	'deep down exploration of relationships, hopes, fears and the pursuit of happiness'
7.20	Hannah Sanders	'truly original interpretations of traditional and contemporary songs'
7.50	Karen Johnson and Tony Clark	'well chosen material from the likes of Boo Hewardine and Corinne Polwart with Karen's stunning vocals and Tony's fluent guitar work'
8.30	Sin Nombre	'european folk rock at it's virtuoso best'
9.00	Melody Causton	'songwriting brilliance – currently holding no.1 position in the 105 unsigned charts'
9.20	Lizzie Taylor and Mark Gamon	'songs from the heart, underpinned by guitar straight out of the ballpark...'
9.50	The Connection with TA and JK	'kora led eclecticism, the definition of fusion blending world rhythms with jazz, reggae and celtic influences'
10.30	Acoustic Queen	'the good time boys are back for a run through of Freddy's finest'
Sunday	11th August
12.00	TJ Phillips	'smooth, jazz tinged acoustic writing – perfect for a summer brunch'
12.30	Arnolds	'a chilled set of covers with Angela's lovely vocals and Simon's expert guitar playing'
1.00	KJAM	'amazing close harmonies and well chosen covers – upbeat and enervating'
1.45	The Familiars	'superb 6 piece band covering everything from Baker Street to Patience'
2.30	Andrew Martin	'ukele-led classics with UK, Australian and USA pedigrees'
7.00	Madrigals by the River	'join us at the Orchards for a picnic from 6pm with music from the Fen Edge Singers at 7pm – collection taken.'